

19th EUROPEAN CONFERENCE ON GENERAL THORACIC SURGERY
MARSEILLE, 5 – 8 JUNE 2011

Joint ESTS-FSTCVS Session

Wednesday 8 June 2011 09:00 – 10:30

Organiser: Marcel Dahan (Toulouse) – Pascal Thomas (Marseille)

Chairmen: Henri Porte (Lille) – Godehard Friedel (Gerlingen)

Research and the Young Thoracic Surgeon

Each presentation: 10 minutes (2 minutes of discussion)

09:00 – 09:05	Introduction by President FSTCVS	(Marcel Dahan, Toulouse)
09:05 – 09:17	Tracheal replacement with cryopreserved allogenic aorta	(Aghate Seguin, Paris)
09:17 – 09:29	Pathways that are involved in vasculopathy development leading to persistent pulmonary hypertension after pulmonary thromboendarterectomy.	(Olaf Mercier, Le Plessis Robinson)
09:29 – 09:41	Impact of estrogen on tumor vascularisation: experimental data	(Laurent Brouchet, Toulouse)
09:41 – 09:53	Why citrate should be tested as local and adjuvant anti-cancer treatment in patients suffering pleural and/or peritoneal carcinomatosis	(Philippe Icard, Caen)
09:53 – 10:05	Lung cancer stem cells: new insights on experimental models and preclinical data	(Caroline Rivera, Bordeaux)
10:05 – 10:17	Molecular detection of airways colonization in patients submitted for lung cancer surgery	(Xavier Benoit D'Journo, Marseille)
10:17 – 10:29	Cervical incision thoracic endoscopic surgery: a minimally invasive endoscopic approach in thoracic surgery	(Jallal Assouad, Paris)